ORIGINAL

Helena, Montana

December 7, 2016

Dear Sirs:

What an appropriate day, to protect American values. The 75 anniversary of Pearl Harbor, again Americans are being attacked, more specifically Montanans. This rule change of 8.4 (g) Professional Rules of Conduct for Montana Attorneys is preposterous. The recent elections have shown that citizens are tired and angry of idiocy. This is a blatant attack on our religious rights as Christians and an overreach of state government by an elitist left. As a former state Representative, a pastor, and a Montana citizen, I will stand with the Montana Family Foundation and others that refuse this abomination of state law. This rule is legislating from the bench, that is not your job, if you choose to legislate run for the offices at the legislature. Stop, look, and listen.

Sincerely submitted,

Cleve Loney
